SR - Services Rendered This citizen reported that he had received three or four calls in the past three weeks from a person claiming to be with Medicare. This person tried to obtain personal information and used the excuse that a new Medicare Card needed to be issued as the old one had expired. No personal information was ever exchanged. NIPD checked with Medicare.gov and learned that Medicare does not call people directly and no one should give out or disclosed personal information to anyone claiming to be associated with Medicare. This information was passed on the citizen along with a toll free number to Medicare if he had additional concerns.
